SEVENTH CENSUS OF WESTERN AUSTRALIA, 1901.

PART I.-POPULATION AND HABITATIONS.

NOTE.—The intention in connection with the Census of this State having been to exclude ALL Aboriginals, whether full-blooded or half-caste, from the returns of general population, the tables contained in this Part were originally drawn up on that basis. When the Part had been practically completed notification was however received that an opinion had been given by the Honourable the Atterney General of the Commonwealth to the effect that "in reckoning the population of the Commonwealth, half-castes are not Aboriginal natives within the meaning of Section 127 of the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act, and should therefore be included." In order therefore to avoid the creation of two sets of population figures it has been decided to include half-caste aboriginals with the general population, and a column relating to these has consequently been introduced in the following pages in tables dealing with population, the number of half-castes being in each case included in the grand total.
